About Catherine Anderson...

Catherine Anderson, born in 1948, is a bestselling American romance novelist. Anderson, who resides in the pristine woodlands of Central Oregon, is married to her high school sweetheart, Sid, and has authored more than 30 award-winning historical and contemporary romances.

Some of Anderson's earliest memories included playing dolls at her mother's feet while she clacked away on an old Underwood. Her mother typed away at stories and then read them aloud to her children. With such an early influence and inspiration, it seems inevitable that Anderson would eventually become a writer in her own right. But such a course of action would not be immediate, as Anderson spent many years devoting her time exclusively to her husband and two young sons.

When the children were grown, Anderson enrolled in accounting courses at college in order to assist her husband, Sid. As the wife of an entrepreneur, she felt that she would be an invaluable asset as his bookkeeper. Yet, even though she was an exemplary student, numbers simply did not make her happy. With Sid's blessing, she dropped out of college and started writing full time. Sid has often said that buying her first typewriter was the best investment he ever made.

Anderson published her first novel, Reasonable Doubt, to Harlequin Intrigue in 1988. She authored three more books with HQN before spending over four years total researching and writing the Comanche series. The first title, Comanche Moon, was published in 1991. Throughout her career, Anderson has alternated between historical and contemporary romance. Many of her novels feature characters with disabilities. Animals are a recurring theme in her works, with the setting being on or near horse ranches.

Her later novels, including SUN KISSED and MORNING

LIGHT, have reached the top 5 and 10 of the New York Times Best-seller lists. Throughout her career, she has made numerous other bestseller lists such as: USA Today, Publisher's Weekly, Ingram, Waldenbooks, and Barnes and Nobles. She has received nine nominations for the Romantic Times Reviewer's Choice Awards, as well being a RITA award finalist for INDIGO BLUE. Her novel, CHERISH, was a Romantic Times Award Winner. In 2004, Anderson was awarded a Career Achievement Award by Romantic Times for Contemporary Romance. Anderson's works have been translated into numerous languages and distributed around the world. In addition, many titles have been made into audio books. Nearly a dozen have been made available in large print. Anderson has attended numerous RWA conventions, as well as participating in the writer/reader cruise "Get Caught Reading At Sea."

In May of 2008, Anderson's classic historical romance, COMANCHE MOON, was reissued to the delight of her readers worldwide. Long out of print, the book hit the New York Times bestseller list. The next two titles in the series are scheduled for reissue by her publisher, Penguin Putnam/New American Library.

Scheduled for release in January of 2009 is her newest book, STAR BRIGHT. It is the heartwarming story of an abused woman's struggle to reclaim her confidence, regain her sense of self, and find true love. STAR BRIGHT was chosen as a Great Reads-Guaranteed Book from Penguin Group. In addition, Wal-Mart awarded STAR BRIGHT the Read of the Month for January, 2009. To view the book trailer for STAR BRIGHT, visit Anderson's website at www.catherineanderson.com. The trailer link will be available for viewing in December 2008.

In June 2008, COMANCHE HEART, the much-loved and long out-of-print sequel to COMANCHE MOON will be reissued.

Praise for Catherine Anderson

Morning Light

“Heart-tugger extraordinaire Anderson adds a touch of the paranormal to this poignant and richly rewarding chapter in her Harrigan family series. A subtext to this race-against-time tale is how faith and accepting extraordinary gifts are not mutually exclusive.”

--Romantic Times

“A terrific read, with all the depth and emotions that readers of romance love....not to be missed.”

--The Romance Readers Connection

Sun Kissed

“This smart, wholesome tale should appeal to any fan of the traditional romance.”

--Publisher's Weekly

Summer Breeze

“Vivid descriptions, realistic family relationships (especially the lively sibling banter), and dash of suspense make this heartwarming, gently sensual romance a satisfying read.”

--Library Journal

“Another heartwarming chapter in the Coulter family saga is on tap in the always wonderful Anderson's newest release.....Anderson is at her best when it comes to telling stories that are deeply emotional and heartfelt.”

--Romantic Times (4 ½ Stars)

“Anderson understands the inner workings of the human soul so deeply that she's able to put intense emotion within a stunning romance in such a way that you'll believe in miracles. Add this to her beautiful writing style, memorable characters, and a timeless story and you have an unmatched reading adventure.”

--Romantic Times (4 ½ Stars)

“The kind of book that will snare you so completely, you'll not want to put it down. It engages the intellect and emotions; it'll make you care. It will also make you smile....a lot. And that's a guarantee.”

RT Rating:
Category: ROMANTIC SUSPENSE
Publisher: SIGNET
Published: January 2009
Type: Romantic Suspense

It's back to Crystal Falls, Ore., as the next Harrigan brother meets his romantic denouement. When opening an Anderson novel, readers encounter great characterization as well as complex emotional issues. Poignant and funny, yet laced with danger, this is a truly enchanting read.

Summary: Fear for her life forces Rainie Hall to fake her own death in order to escape her powerful husband, Peter Danning. She lands in the small community of Crystal Falls and applies for the position of bookkeeper at Parker Harrigan's horse ranch. Rainie gets the job as "Anna Pritchard," but perceptive Parker soon suspects she's not who she claims to be.

Getting this frightened woman to trust him becomes Parker's mission, but he has no idea of the extent of the danger shadowing her. Rainie's husband is a true psychopath who has already murdered two previous wives. With no proof, can Rainie convince the authorities of the truth? (SIGNET, Jan., 432 pp., $7.99)
